

MS-UK adult safeguarding policy

Aims

This policy is designed to ensure MS-UK provides services to adults in an environment that has safe and effective working practices in place.

Scope

This policy applies to staff, trustees, volunteers and anyone else providing services for the charity and working directly with our clients.

Definition

Safeguarding duties apply to an adult (over 18 years old) who:

- has needs for care and support (whether or not the authority is meeting any of those needs)
- and, as a result of those needs is unable to protect themselves against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it
- and/ or is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect

Abuse types:

- Physical: including hitting, slapping, pushing, punching, burning, misuse of medication, restraint or inappropriate sanctions, accumulation of minor accidents without seeking medical assistance
- Financial or material: including theft, fraud, exploitation, pressure in connection with wills, property, inheritance or financial transactions or the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions or benefits
- Sexual: including rape, sexual assault or sexual acts to which the adult has not consented, or could not consent to or was pressured into consenting to, inappropriate touching, exposure to pornographic material
- Psychological or emotional: including belittling, name calling, threats of harm, abandonment, deprivation of contact, humiliation, blaming, controlling, intimidation, coercion, harassment, verbal abuse, cyber bullying, isolation or unreasonable and unjustified withdrawal of services or support networks

- Discriminatory: including discrimination on the ground of race, gender and gender identity, disability, sexual orientation, religion and other forms of harassment, slurs or similar treatment
- Neglect and acts of omission: including withholding the necessities of life such as medication, adequate nutrition and heating, ignoring medical or physical care needs and failure to provide access to appropriate health, social care or educational services
- Self-neglect: neglecting to care for one's personal hygiene, health or surroundings including behaviour such as hoarding
- Domestic: incident, or pattern of incidents, of controlling, coercive or threatening behaviour, violence or abuse by someone who is, or has been, an intimate partner or family member regardless of gender or sexuality. This includes: physical; sexual; psychological; financial; emotional abuse, 'honour' based violence, Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) and forced marriage
- Modern slavery: encompasses slavery, human trafficking, forced labour and domestic servitude. Traffickers and slave masters use whatever means they have at their disposal to coerce, deceive and force individuals into a life of abuse, servitude and inhumane treatment
- Organisational: institutional abuse occurs where the culture of the organisation (such as a care home) places emphasis on the running of the establishment
- Multiple forms of abuse: may occur in an ongoing relationship or an abusive service setting to one person, or to more than one person at a time, making it important to look beyond single incidents or breaches in standards, to underlying dynamics and patterns of harm. Any, or all, of these types of abuse may be perpetrated as the result of deliberate intent and targeting due to negligence, or ignorance of vulnerable people

Abuse can take place in any setting, public or private, and may be carried out deliberately or unknowingly. Abuse may be a single act or repeated acts.

People who behave abusively come from all backgrounds and walks of life. They may be doctors, nurses, social workers, advocates, staff members, volunteers or others in a position of trust. They may also be relatives, friends, neighbours or people who use the same services as the person experiencing the abuse.

Support for those who report abuse

All those making a complaint, an allegation or expressing a concern, whether they are employees, trustees, volunteers, and/ or service users, carers/ families or members of the general public should be reassured that:

- They will be taken seriously
- Their comments will usually be treated confidentially, but their concerns may be shared with the designated safeguarding lead if they or others are at significant risk, and will take any appropriate action in accordance with this policy

If an allegation of abuse is made about a member of staff:

- MS-UK employees, trustees or volunteers will be aware that abuse is a serious matter that could lead to a criminal conviction
- If a criminal offence has been committed the police will be informed
- Where applicable MS-UK's disciplinary policy will be implemented
- If appropriate the matter may be referred to the DBS
- MS-UK will conduct a risk assessment to ascertain the level of risk the staff member may pose to those receiving a service and whether it is safe for them to continue in their role or any other role while the matter is being investigated

Safeguarding children

Whilst MS-UK does not directly work with children we know that the service users we engage with may have their own children, grandchildren and/ or come into contact with other children. It is important that we do not ignore any concerns that we hear and all staff, trustees, volunteers and anyone working on our behalf must report and share any concerns with the designated safeguarding lead.

Confidentiality

Safeguarding adults raises issues of confidentiality which must be clearly understood by all:

- Staff, trustees, volunteers and anyone else providing services for the charity who are working directly with our clients have a professional responsibility to share relevant information about the safeguarding of adults with other professionals, particularly investigative agencies and adult services in the relevant local area
- All personal information regarding the adult at risk will be kept secure. All written records will be kept in a secure area for a specific time in keeping with MS-UK's Data Protection policy. Files will only have the details required in the initial adult safeguarding report and any additional relevant information, risk assessments and referral forms
- If an adult at risk confides in a member of staff and requests that the information is kept secret, it is important that the member of staff explains sensitively that he or she has a responsibility to refer cases of alleged abuse to the designated named person, who will decide whether to refer to the appropriate agencies
- The adult at risk must, however, be assured that the matter will be disclosed only to people who need to know about it
- Where possible, consent should be obtained from the adult at risk before sharing their personal information with third parties. In some circumstances obtaining consent may be neither possible nor desirable as the safety and welfare of the adult at risk is the priority
- The adult at risk must be assured that they will be kept informed of what action, if any is to be taken and why. The adults' involvement in the process of sharing information must be fully considered and their wishes and feelings taken into account where possible
